Mmm, my friends keep telling me to pull myself together
They try to cheer me up but it's not gettin' better They say that time will pass and I'll love again some day
But time is standing still ever since you went away

Now, all the king's horses and all the king's men
You'll never get me back together again
'Cause I just fall apart each time I look at you No, all the king's and all the king's men
Are never gonna make me smile again
How can I smile just knowin' you're with somebody new?, ooh

You had my hopes so high I guess they had to tumble And when you left my dream my world began to crumble
No woman ever found the only missing part When you left me behind don't you know you took my heart?

Now, all the king's horses and all the king's men
You'll never get me back together again
'Cause I just fall apart each time I look at you, yes I do, now
All the king's and all the king's men
You're never gonna make me smile again
How can I smile just knowin' you're with somebody new?, ooh, yeah, ooh, ahh, ha

All the king's horses and all the king's men
You'll never get me back together again
'Cause I just fall apart each time I look at you, yes I do
I said, all the king's and all the king's men
Are never gonna make me smile again
How can I smile just knowing you're with somebody new?, yeah

All the king's horses and all the king's men
You'll never get me back together again
And I just fall apart each time
