(Carole Pope / Kevan Staples)

I'm curious, I wanna know
I'm an idealist, I'll let it show
I'm curious with myself
I'm delirious from wanting

The noise that announces a seduction
I'm a volcano
In a state of eruption
I live life with a wild intensity
Need to be aroused
To the point of intimacy

What are your motives?
I got to know
I'm doing research
I got to know
What are your motives?
I got to know
Tell me your motives, oh, oh

'Cause I'm curious, I wanna know
I'm an idealist, I'll let it show
I'm curious with myself
I'm delirious from wanting

The fusing, the melting of two bodies
I'm addicted to lethal sexuality
I live life on the edge of ecstasy
Need to be desired
Nothing else fulfils me

What are your motives?
I got to know
I'm doing research
I got to know
What are your motives?
I got to know
Tell me your motives, ooh, ooh

I'm curious, I wanna know
I'm an idealist, I'll let it show
I'm curious with myself
I'm delirious from wanting

I'm curious, I wanna know
I'm an idealist, I'll let it show
I'm curious with myself
I'm delirious from wanting

Yes, I'm curious, I wanna know
I'm an idealist, I'll let it show
I am curious with myself
Too delirious from singing
'Cause I'm curious, I wanna know
I'm an idealist, I'll let it show
