If all you want's a good time, baby
There's a party down the street
If you're trying to fight an old flame
Well, I can't take the heat
If you're looking for a game to play
Well, I wish you luck
'Cause all I have to offer you is love

If you only want a keeper darling
I don't hold the key
If you're searching for a saviour better
Get down on your knees
If you're looking for the answers, well
Hell I don't know that much
'Cause all I have to offer you is love

Oh darling, there's a whole lot of things
I've found that I just can't be, no I can't
But if you're looking for a real love, baby
I've got all that you'll ever need
It might be more than you're after
Or not nearly enough
But all I have to offer you is love

Oh darling, there's a whole lot of things
I've found I just can't be
But if you're looking for a real love, baby
I've got all that you'll ever need
It might be more than you're after
Or not nearly enough, ahh
But all I have to offer you is love

Sweet love, baby
'Cause all I got to offer you is love
Sweet love
Oh baby, sugar
