(Carole Bayer Sager & Peter Allen) Quiet please, there's a lady on stage
She may not be the latest rage
But she's singing and she means it
And she deserves a little silence Quiet please, there's a woman up there
And she's been honest through her songs Long before your consciousness was raised Doesn't that deserve a little praise
So put your hands together and help her along All that's left of the singer
All that's left of the song Stand for the ovation
And give her one last celebration Quiet please,
there's a person up there And she's been singing of the things
That none of us could bear to hear for ourselves
Give her your respect if nothing else
Quiet
please, there's a lady on stage Conductor, turn the final page
And when it's over we can all go home
But she lives on -- on the stage alone.
