Rejected [x2]
Rejected, evicted [x2]
Yeah, rejected and evicted over you
Over you, how could I ever get over you
Over you, how could I ever get (huh! huh! huh! huh! huh!)

Hail to the victim, yeah, all hail to the victim
They've been rejected and evicted over you

All hail to the victim, yeah, all hail to the victim
They've been rejected and evicted over you

Over you, how could I ever get over you [x2]
How could I ever get over you

Over you, how could I ever get

I've never been promoted
And I've always been so loaded
I've been neglected and conflicted
Just like I was the dope and you kicked it
Yeah, rejected and evicted over you

Over you, how could I ever get over you [x2]
How could I ever get over you
Over you, how could I ever get over you
Over you [x3] (How could I ever get)
Over you [x2] (How could I ever get)
How could I ever get over you [x4]
