This Time

I'm gonna do things right
And let it shine so bright
Like a spotlight in the night
We started out so strong
If anything goes wrong
I got you to lean upon
I stand for what is true
Do it all for you

This Time

No more spinning in circles like before
No more wondering what I'm trying for
Oh no, not this time
After all I've thrown away
It's impossible to say
What it might be worth today
But I set my sights ahead
And go on with you instead
And remember what you said
Just stand for what is true
I'll always be with you

This time

This Time

No more spinning in circles like before
No more wondering what I'm trying for
Oh no, not this time
I'm gonna do things right
And let it shine so bright
Like a spotlight in the night
We started out so strong
If anything goes wrong
I got you to lean upon
I stand for what is true
Do it all for you

This Time

No more spinning in circles like before
No more wondering what I'm trying for
Oh no, not this time
No more spinning in circles like before
No more wondering what I'm trying for
Oh no, not this time
I stand for what is true

Do it all for you
