We've been together, less than a week
But I swear it seems like two years at least
Whether face to face or over the phone
When I hear your voice, I'm right at home

You're so beautiful, more than a man could ever want,
girl
Got me looking for cameras to see if I'm being punk'd Trying to take it slow, ain't no sense in lying to you or to myself

I know it's early, I know it's soon
But truth be told, I, I think I love you
It's unexpected, gotta let you know
(So but I that I)
I think I love u

The way you touch me, the way you look at me
Everything about you is so, so sexy
You do your own thing, got your own money
Everything about you is so damn, you're so damn beautiful

You're so beautiful, more than a man could ever want
girl
Got me looking for Ashton to see if I'm being punk'd Trying to take it slow, ain't no sense in lying to you or to
myself

I know it's early, I know it's soon
But truth be told, I, I think I love you
Its unexpected, out of the blue, gotta let you know
(So but I, that I)
I think I love u

I never felt this way so fast
So fast about anyone, real spit
Hate to admit it, but I got it bad
I got it bad, baby girl
But it's a good thing

I know it's early, I know it's soon

But truth be told, I, I think I love you
Its unexpected, out of the blue, gotta let you know
(So but I, that I)
I think I love u

I know it's early, I know it's soon
But truth be told, I, I think I love you
Its unexpected, out of the blue, gotta let you know
(So but I, that I)
I think I love u

I know it's early, I know it's soon
But truth be told, I, I think I love you
Its unexpected, out of the blue, gotta let you know
(So but I, that I)
I think I love u

You're so beautiful, got me looking for Trying to take it slow, I think I love u
