You would like to think you know it all
You would like to think you have got it sussed
Well, you are a real hopeless fool
Too much in love with lady luck

Well, take a look at yourself
When you're gonna realize?
Well, get out of my sight
'Cause it's you I despise

Well, that's right, yeah so long
You are gonna have to face it
That you are nothing but a waste of

That's right, yeah so long
You are, get out of my face
You're nothing but a waste of space
You're such a waste
Nothing more than a waste of space

You are always out to lunch
Always too blind to see
You are just a tourist
In another person's reality

Well, take a look at yourself
Tell me can you see the signs?
A real fool with no hope
I think, you know

That's right, yeah so long
You're gonna have to face it
That you are nothing but a waste of

That's right, yeah so long
You're, get out of my face
You're nothing but a waste of space
You're such a waste
Nothing more than a waste of space

Oh, yeah
Nothing more than a waste of space
