Have You Ever Heart As It LAys Dyin
While What's Left Of It's Life
Slip's Away
Well any tears that get shed
Ain't worth cryin
Cause I've Seen Plenty
I'm Lucky That Way

Have You Ever Heard a voice
Start to moanin'
After Despair's choked its Last words away
Well any worse sound defies your ears even knowin' and Lord I've Heard plenty
I'm Lucky That Way

So Wrap Your warm arms around me and let our weak hands deal out love's sad fate
Then Press Your Soft Lips against me
And Let the first bets on new Love Be made

Have You ever watched a couple where one stands crying while begging the other to please stay
The Awful truth is
It ain't worth the tryin'
Lord I've watchd plenty
I'm Lucky that way

Lord I've watched plenty
I'm Just lucky that way
