Since I started drinkin' again
Since I started drinkin' again, hey girl
Well, I ain't shed one lousy tear over you
Since I started drinkin' again

Well, I know that the neighbors are all a-talkin'
They swear that I have lost my mind
Ah, but they do not know that I've just gained control
Of all the heartache that you left behind

Since I started drinkin' again
Since I started drinkin' again, oh girl
Well, I ain't shed one lousy tear over you
Since I started drinkin' again

Well, I know that the boss is gonna fire me
When I stumble in late to work again
Oh, but surprise will replace that old scowl on his face
When he sees that I do not give a damn

Since I started drinkin' again
Since I started drinkin' again, hey girl
Well, I ain't shed one lousy tear over you
Since I started drinkin' again

Well, I ain't shed one lousy tear over you
Since I started drinkin'
Since I started drinkin'
Since I started drinkin' again, hey girl
