Somewhere tonight, two hearts both needing
Somewhere tonight, each one all alone
Somewhere tonight, a chance for them pleading
Somewhere tonight that soon could be gone,
Somewhere they might still try
Somewhere to claim love's right
Somewhere even frail trust can survive
So I don't wanna be
Somewhere tonight with my heart still needing
Somewhere tonight, a chance that is gone.
Somewhere at sometime there won't have to be
A look that we take back or touch we can't mean
Somewhere tonight it's waiting inside of you and me
Oh, I don't want to be.
--- Instrumental ---
Somewhere they might still try
Somewhere to claim love's right
Somewhere even frail trust can survive
So I don't wanna be
Somewhere tonight with my heart still needing
Somewhere tonight, a chance that is gone...
--- Instrumental to fade ---
