(dwight yoakam)

Please don't start me cryin'
'cause I'll go on for days
If don't take a lot
But once this starts, it stays

Talking used to help
Here lately though,
That just brings it on

Chorus:
I'll be fine in time
But right now, I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to succeed

I think I'll just leave now
Before this hurts too much
Avoiding sights from places
My eyes can't bear to touch

I didn't plan to see you
And then I saw him first

Chorus:
I'll be fine in time
But right now, I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to succeed
