The things my father said
would make me a better man,
Hard work and the love of friends a woman that understands.

I hope my father knows the seeds we've sewn still grow,
At night I go to sleep and pray he's watching over me

Somewhere there's a star that's shining,
So bright that I can see you smile,
And all that I need is one last chance,
Just to hear you say... Goodbye...

Sometimes I remember when
You taught me to tie my shoes,
One thing I will never forget
Is the day that I lost you.

I hope you always know the car that we built will always roll
Somewhere there's a star that's shining,
So bright that I can see you smile,
And all that I need is one last chance,
Just to hear you say... Goodbye...

And if you have a dream
You'd better hang on for dear life,
And when that cold wind blows
Just let it pass you by.

Yeah... Things my father said
Yea-ah! Yeah yeah yeah...

Somewhere there's a star that's shining,
So bright that I can see you smile,
And all that I need is one last chance,
Just to hear you say... Goodbye...

Goodbye... Just to hear you say... Goodbye...
