I wonder where we'll be
Will everything we see
Still look the way it does today
Will everything we have
Be everything it is
If we go our separate ways

Down by the river every summer we had nothing
But time on our side
Talking 'bout forever how we'd always be together

Life keeps us running, chasing and falling
But we won't let go when the World keeps on turning and our hearts are hurting we won't let go

I wonder where we'll be
When we're thirty three Will we still be who we are
Will everything we know
Be everything we hoped
Will we still have that spark

Another cold December and I can still remember the way you'd say
We'd always be together and no matter what the weather

Life keeps us running, chasing and falling
But we won't let go when the World keeps on turning and our hearts are hurting we
won't let go

When the distance hurts and it all gets worse
These are the times that (we won't let go)
When the darkness fades we will still remain
Inseparable unstoppable invincible

Down by the river every summer we had nothing
But time
Talking 'bout forever how we'd always be together

Life keeps us running, chasing and falling
But we won't let go when the World keeps on turning and our hearts are hurting we
won't let go
