One more time, just one too many times is all it had to take now we can't resist the world's too full its time to bring it back and turn this shit around it's the last rebellion, we are gonna take the rich and hang em up so fucking high its justified genocide raised in greed they swallow up our lives in a carnivore feast hard-core traumatized they promise but they never fucking give this world, tied down, gang raped, disgraced corporation-nations start the game persist, exploit, rip-off, defame put one against the other till they're dead beat them, face down, make them, eat shit burn the fucking "global village" down riot, the government's in flames , the corpses pile high on the White House lawn dead, another million dead, let's execute and kill justified with force-fed freedom walls of propaganda, a system built on lies crush the insurrection, the masses will uprising we procreate! our over-dominating force is crushing all within its way watch the world as it burns, class war- now its our turn I just watch their fucking shit-it burns so high and wastes away now we have the means-through total war we are redeemed armageddon calling its time to fucking kill destroy the false world order and crush the status quo the pressure is leaving as I waste their fucking lives lawyers and preachers are the first sacrificed pawns of the system they perpetuate misery corrupted, creating a fucking demockery masses of the world all bow to it, so blind and full of shit World Bank-IMF they're both the same, nations all enslaved if they just let us suffer, we got to turn them over this is the precedent for killing the nation-state a lack of total vision leads to social amputation they are locked inside a world apart from reality
