you dont know what you put me through its okay ive forgiven you but in some way hope it fucks with you iam okay and ive made it through but whos to say what your going thorough you called me names but i didnt want to isnt it strange how it seems like yesterday iam already afraid lost deep inside

my place to hide to hide from how you make me feel and i wonder how you are did you end up fucked up like me lost in yourself crying for help its sad to say i learned to live without pride just a shell with me stuck inside but theres not a place to hide

did you finally make it through just like me finding yourself not needing help its safe to say
