

Dying Passion

"Safe"

Where do you get your eyes from when we're all gone?
Where do you get your passion when you're so headstrong?
So so strong
You're not wrong no never ever wrong now

Swing my way and I will let you pass on through now
Just love me with the time I will learn to love you too
now
Swing my way

How do you make your ends meet when they fray?
Where do you get your strength from when the feelings fade?
Go go gone
You're not wrong no never ever wrong

Swing my way and I will let you pass on through now
Swing my way and I will let you pass on through Swing my way and I will learn to love you too now
Swing my way
