Open my eyes again.
I've seen it before but I forget how it ends.
Thinking too deep at times leaves me short of breath
So please simplify everything for me that's left.

CHORUS

Don't wanna sit around Never will be found Following a way of life that brings so many people down.
Everything's so calculated Give it two more days maybe she picked up the phone and hesitated
This is who I am today and tomorrow
This is who I am today and tomorrow

Listens to me but only with her eyes
And the world turns only so many times I can't wait for you to find me in your heart beneath your fear Well I've moved on and you're still here..... Silence describes it best
The less you have, the less you have to impress

And time's the only difference between my dreams and reality
So tell me this is real

CHORUS

If what you say is true then I'll wait days and days and days for you.
And when you put your pen to paper
I'd rather read you than Shakespeare.
In a poem she once read to me she lay in my arms so silently She said she was my guitar and I was her voice and we were in tune
This is my choice.
And I knew it was right

when I kissed your lips that night It's the feeling inside that answers all my questions to why You bring out the best in me and I wanna bring out the best in you That's only if you want me to
