Dynamite Boy
"Waiting For Erin"

I'm hoping
Your choking
On every word I say
Your dreaming
Your screaming
It's nothing
I'll run away
Decide what's more important to you
We'll never let
Never let you get through

I'll always look down on you
For everything that you do
Don't call it jealousy
Your time will come you'll see
Cause I know
That you know me

Your broken
I'm smoking
A mockery of yourself
You need it
So greedy
Start changing your life today
Decide what's more important to you
We'll never
Never let you get through

I'll always look down on you
For everything that you do
Don't call it jealousy
Your time will come you'll see
I know
That you know me

I'll always look down on you
For everything that you do
Don't call it jealousy
Your time will come you'll see
I know
That you know me

I'll always look down on you
For everything that you do
Don't call it jealousy
Your time will come you'll see
I know
That you know me
