A time to live, a time to die.

A time to be born, a time to die.
No guarantee to keep living your life.
A time for war and a time for peace.
We all meet in the grave, is this your final resting place?

Life's burden to be fulfilled,
Your flesh will rest in dust.
Better off dead, return to dust.
Better off dead, return to dust.
Return to dust.
Down trodden, crushed in spirit, rise.
Down trodden, crushed in spirit, rise.
Down trodden, crushed in spirit, rise.
Down trodden, crushed in spirit, rise.
Arise.
