Welcome to the in house mind fuck
Walk with pride assured and strong
There's no exceptance. Mindless aggression.
The purpose all just slips away.
This ain't the place to fight your fight
Leave me alone to live my own life
I ain't seen'.. I ain't beleivin'.
All I say and hope, Both sides Burn.

How soon do you forget
The ones that backed you up and let you down
Feeling your alone again
No one you can really trust

I can never explain what my friends did for me
My crew could never let me down
Final assessment final regression
Strength derived from years of pain

This ain't the place to fight your fight
Leave me alone to live my own life
I ain't seen'.. I ain't beleivin'.
All I say and hope, Both sides Burn.
