"Set Up"

I have climbed so high believing all I can see
Are the clouds that lie beneath me
I lost touch with the world down below
Till the ledge I walk came crumbling down
Nothing is wrong till I see
This shattered side belongs to me
An ego can hide so much
I'm set to fall
To fall
Nothing without a reason
All my life I tried to climb to the top
Left alone without something to believe in
I tried so hard
My life is dead
For I can't care
I climbed so far
To defend my lies
To see myself
Through my eyes
What I've got
Nothing
