Let's give them more hope
They deserve more
They deserve more
Let's give them more hope
We'll give them more

At troubled times like these
I know it's hard to stay strong
But we must, to see this through
With a fragile heart like yours
The eyes of the world will know for sure
We'll make it, we'll make it

Oh we have what it takes

To not tell them, what they wanna hear
To let go, the dreams disappear
Break them down just to build them up
Let's give hope
And not tell them, what they wanna hear
To let go, the dreams disappear
Break them down just to build them up
Let's give hope

If anybody ever gets in the way, or blocks a path we've been given
We'll take it, we'll break it

Oh we have what it takes

To not tell them, what they wanna hear
To let go, the dreams disappear
Break them down just to build them up
Let's give hope
And not tell them, what they wanna hear
To let go, the dreams disappear
Break them down just to build them up
Let's give hope

The only way to make it
Is believing in yourself

The only way to pull through
Is detaching the weight of the world off your back

The only way to make it
Is believing in yourself
The only way to pull through
Is detaching the weight of the world off your back

Let's give them more hope
They deserve more
They deserve more
Let's give them hope
We'll give them more

I know it's hard to stay strong
But we must to see this through

To not tell them, what they wanna hear
To let go, the dreams disappear
Break them down just to build them up
Let's give hope
And not tell them, what they wanna hear
To let go, the dreams disappear
Break them down just to build them up
Let's give hope
