have two eye gut i can not see i have a herart but i can not feel anything don't give up now i'm almost there i got a mouth but is doesn't say the thing i want it to say today anyway

life's just an ugly mess the angry souls in such distress but there is a time when moments can be sweet and it feels like someone is smiling down on me sometimes it feel like i'm all alone most of the time actually i am alone that's all right

oh if i had a million bucks it wouldn't matter 'cause my soul is always climbing a ladder oh i know

the ugly souls in such distress still there is a time when moments can be sweet

alright
