Eight lives left
One chapter down
Still nothing new
In this old town
I'd like to spend at least one life with you
And a heart that wants to be true
Five miles out
The depot is there
A Greyhound is waiting
To take us somewhere
I'd like to spend at least one life with you

And a heart that wants to be true
