Sometimes at night I know you're sad and lonely
There's no-one there to call
You're one and only
And all your friends, they seem so far away... away from you
What can you do?
Want you to know I'll always be beside you
And through the night my heart will always guide you
Believe in me and you will find out that it's so true
I'll be with you

You give me all I desire in the deep of the night
You make my love spread like fire
Hold me close, hold me tight
You give me all I desire, all I need to survive
You keep the flames growing higher
Gotta hold over me, over me

Sometimes at night I know you feel like crying
Your heart's so weak and all your dreams are dying
You need a friend
You need a helping hand to stand the pain
You feel insane
Want you to know I'll always be beside you
And through the night my heart will always guide you
Believe in me and you will find out that it's true
I'll be with you

You give me all I desire in the deep of the night
You make my love spread like fire
Hold me close, hold me tight
You give me all I desire, all I need to survive
You keep the flames growing higher
Gotta hold over me, over me

You give me all I desire in the deep of the night
You make my love spread like fire
Hold me close, hold me tight
You give me all I desire, all I need to survive
You keep the flames growing higher
Gotta hold over me, over me

You give me all I need
You give me all I long
Oh baby, uuhh

You give me all I need
You give me all I long
You give me all I need
