Make my heart believe that love is true.
Tell me little lies, but don't deceive me.
There is so much fame I have to take.
I forgive it all, but never leave me, love me.

Oh, baby, don't say we're through
When you walk away my soul starts bleeding.
Cause I can't live without you.
I don't wanna feel you heart was cheating.
Don't say we're through.

I know all the games, but never play.
Played it all before, but still I'm searching.
Deep inside my soul I start to pray.
This time love is real, but still makes hurting.
Hold me.
