Won't you send me, send me a message of love
Tells me you're lonely tonight.
Tells me you want me to love you
And hold you so tight.

Send me... a message of love...

I'm waiting here, my heart is crying.
Book of love.
Your words are lying.
There is nothing left to say.
Baby I thought it could be forever.
Shared the days and the nights together.
Baby, please, come back and stay.

Won't you send me, send me a message of love
Comes to my heart when I sleep
Tells me your feeling so true
And your passions go deep.
Won't you send me, send me a message of love?
Tells me you're lonely tonight.
Tells me you want me to love you
And hold you so tight.

You're like is all I always listen.
Deep my heart I feel the rhythm.
And your love is like a kiss.
Send me a dream to share together.
Side to side and keep forever.
Like all the love I miss.

Send me a message of love...
