You're just seven seconds away

Hear me calling, it's like falling into the land of silence
You're so near and yet so far away
I'm not jealous, I'm not crying but I can feel the violence
When I try so hard to make you stay

You're just seven seconds away
That's much, too much. I can't touch your heart
You're just seven seconds away
But, babe, it hurts when we're worlds apart
You're just seven seconds away
You're just seven seconds away

I feel lonely but I only miss all that inspiration
And the way you treat me right at night
Please come closer, hold my body, gimme that big sensation
And that everlasting light inside

You're just seven seconds away
That's much, too much. I can't touch your heart
You're just seven seconds away
But, babe, it hurts when we're worlds apart
You're just seven seconds away
You're just seven seconds away

You're just seven seconds away
That's much, too much. I can't touch your heart
You're just seven seconds away
But, babe, it hurts when we're worlds apart
You're just seven seconds away
You're just seven seconds away

You're just seven seconds away
