Leaving behind a world on the brink of destruction.
Dreamlike, seeking another way out.
Another empty promise that I could do without.
Afraid or unafraid, leaving behind a world on the brink of destruction.
In our lives, you don't get a second chance.
So don't talk the talk, if you can't dance the dance.
Cause I've got family livin' around every corner.
Now you know.
Don't say I didn't warn ya.
It's not how you lost.
It's how you won.
And where I'm from, it's either do or get done.
The fight isn't over till the war is won,
And where I'm from,
It's either do or get done.
My cries were left unheard.
Feel this pain from the inside.
Instinct is all I have.
Close the door on my life.
Feel this pain from the inside out, out, out.
