Once there were shadows around me ghosts were howling on the prow!
You know there are things to be done no one around care
So give me all of them, and I will follow them
There won't be no one around to see cause
I'm the Last Man Standing
Brightness falls and then you're gone with the wind
You won't see me again
Darkness calls this is a fight I can't win
I'll leave you in the rain
I'll find a way
Got to move on and I will survive
I'll find a way
No matter what I will stay alive
Nnnnow we have searched for the meaning I am set adrift again
Who knows what will come from the mission will still be here
Don't tell me what to do, this is the way you know
There won't be no one around to see cause
I'm the Last Man Standing
Brightness falls and then you're gone with the wind
You won't see me again
Darkness calls this is a fight I can't win
I'll leave you in the rain
I'll find a way
Got to move on and I will survive
I'll find a way
No matter what I will stay alive
Brightness falls and then you're gone with the wind
You won't see me again
Darkness calls this is a fight I can't win
I'll leave you in the rain
I'll find a way
Got to move on and I will survive
I'll find a way
No matter what I will stay alive
I'll find a way
Got to move on and I will survive
I'll find a way

No matter what I will stay alive
