Well, I am for real but I am on my way Silent, of course, but I won't be late Greed, don't you worry, never let it gonna stay beat it my loneliness - Go! so stir it up whatever you don't have to change style no more trauma, was so far away, you'll only make it die come back again, always a friend is that the message I'd like to send?
|: I want you to feel no more loneliness
so ring the alarm
you open my mind
now I talk to the sign
you clear up the sight
now I'm up for the night :|
Time is for real something you'll never change all that you gotta do, of course, you're acting strange Rise again, set again, it's all within your range Do what you gotta do Go!
So dont come tell me things that you dont understand When its all about the honesty and time for you to learn come back again, you're always a friend is that the message I'd like to send?
|: I want you to feel no more loneliness
so ring the alarm
you open my mind
now I talk to the sign
you clear up the sight
now I'm up for the night :|
(When) I know Im supposed to be right
(but) I know that you cant stop the flow
(and) You know Im here gonna be What you are but not what you see
I want you to feel no more loneliness
I want you to feel no more loneliness
so ring the alarm
|: I want you to feel no more loneliness
so ring the alarm
you open my mind
now I talk to the sign

you clear up the sight
