Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

To all ya mother f'ers
Heffers and half steppers
The best of us is yet to come
Ya'll aint seen the last of us
I am that kid that nobody ever gave a ufck about
Curse words and the worst words
Were the first words coming out my mouth
We started out with nothing so we had nothing to lose
Never had an option so there was nothing to choose
And it was all about turning food stamps into cash, buy
some
Dipsey doodles with a food stamp
Get seventy-five cents back
What you know about that now?

In my darkest hour it seems that I cant make it
I find the strength within to know that I can take it
Finger on the trigger...you know you better pull it
Barrel in my mouth, I learned to bite the bullet.

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal

And the jungle taught me to handle foes

We started out with nothing so we had nothing to lose
Never had an option so there was nothing to choose
And it was all about turning food stamps into cash, buy

Get seventy-five cents back
What you know about that now?

In my darkest hour it seems that I cant make it
I find the strength within to know that I can take it
Finger on the trigger...you know you better pull it
Barrel in my mouth, I learned to bite the bullet.

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Im right here
Its right now
Finger on the trigger, barrel in my mouth

Its right now
Finger on the trigger, barrel in my mouth

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls

I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes

Take the bullet between my mandibles
It's the path I chose
Took life and I grabbed the balls
I rose like an animal
And the jungle taught me to handle foes
