so you say it's love you show, huh? like you ain't know you tortured my soul. every day stunting my growth.
put me in a stranglehold, so you can control. eating me away you don't even know. you took my innocence, pissed on it and put your dick in. i couldn't believe every night i pray "help me please" down on my knees. and you never answered me.
one foot in the grave. no you cannot be saved. it's what you thought i should be. you can't fight destiny.
you took everything. everything. if you were so omniscient, omnipotent and omnibenevolent, i'd kneel to you. all you ever showed me was thunder and rain, hunger and pain. help me find my way. help me find my way.you fucking pervert burn in hell i want to make you feel pain. if there was any god, he would take your worthless life away. make innocence your prey, then take it away. rape it away. burn in hell and i screamed...screamed for the lord. but no one answered my calls.
fuck you god. you never answered my calls.
