"Love In The Shadows"

You saw me standing alone in the dark,
Lost in the silence of my heart,
Crying for angels, crying for light,
Crying for someone tonight

No time for wasting, no time for truce,
No time for innocent lies,
Touch me like heroes straight from your eyes,
Lead me to worlds far beyond

And I know it's you for freedom,
And I know you can fill the space in me

I need secrets in the dark, love in the shadows,
Passion burning out from under my skin,
Take me for a ride until the night time's over,
When daylight steals the magic of the dark

I'll give no reasons and no border lines,
Kill the fire that brakes the heart of love,
No more crying for angels, crying for light,
Crying for someone tonight

And I know it's you for freedom,
And I know you can fill the space in me
