Never know if your a victim of a fool,
Only know I can't stop thinking about you,
Love was good and you take it all away,
I felt too hard I guess I ain't the one

Staring the night away,
Don't know where you are,
Calling out your name,
This crazy feeling,
I'm a one way love

Looking back you said you were right above,
Took me home, I didn't think second to none,
Face to face I had no secrets to hide,
I taught to love you when I could have died

Are you running just from me?
Really has your heart,
Have you felt the pain
Of this crazy feeling?

CHORUS:

I'd rather be a fool, I'd be lost with someone new,
I'd be better off dead than to live without you,
I've been searchin' everyday, tryin' to find another way,
I'd be better off dead than to live without you

SOLO

REPEAT CHORUS TWICE

I'd rather be a fool, I'd be lost with someone new,
I'd be better off dead than to live without you,
I've been searchin', I've been searchin',
I'd be better off dead than to live without you
