"Never Give In"

A reason, a victim,
A shadow vacant in the sky.

You yearn for what's missing,
Your power hidden in the night.

An angel or demon, (or demon!)
Your Gods you prayed on lonesome nights.

The damage, inflicted,
The pain in us they leave behind.

Never give in,
Never back down,
Never give in!

We're soldiers, instinctive,
We can bring change before we die.

Through tails of the demons,

To feel what lies beneath our eyes.

Never give in,
Never back down,
Never give in,
Never back down,
When your life feels lost,
(Fight against all odds!)
Never give in,
(Never back down!).

Never give in,
Never back down,
Never give in,
Never back down,
When your life feels lost,
(Fight against all odds!)
Never give in,
(Never back down!)
