"You Never Cry Like A Lover"

You never cry like a lover should,
Or see the sky through the stone and wood.
Sigh when it feels real good
You never cry like a lover.
I thought I saw somebody I loved
Sleeping deep inside you.
If I could catch you in an unguarded moment
I'd stay right there beside you.
You never smile at me late at night,
You never smile like a lover.
Laugh out loud when we get it right.
Try a little harder I can't live with you, baby,
You can't get loose if there's too much light.
Harder- can't live without you.
Sometimes I doubt it.
Try a little harder
And sometimes I believe in love,
But your life goes on like a broken down carousel
Where somebody left the music on.
I was hopin' you were the one,
I was hopin' you were the one,
I was hopin' you were the one,
You never move like you used to do,
I was hopin' you were the one.
Pour it out when you're feelin' blue.
Somebody must have put some pain in you,
You never cry like a lover- you never cry
You never cry like a lover,
You never cry like a lover- cry
Cry like a lover- come on and cry
You never cry like a lover.
Cry like a lover- cry
You never cry like a lover- cry
You never cry like a lover- cry cry
Cry like a lover- you never cry (fade
