Sometimes I feel all alone
I know it's such a strange feeling
'Cause I used to have so many friends
The few I have left, I hold them close to my heart
'Cause tomorrow I might be all alone

I might be all alone, oh, I might be all alone, ooh
I might be all alone, oh, I might be all alone

There are choices to make
But I feel scared and I'm sad
'Cause I'm feeling there ain't no trust at all
Woke up, had it all, then come nightfall
I've got nothing left but heart shaken down

Left with nothing at all, oh, left with nothing at all

Please, be there, I'm alone, ooh
Please, be there, I'm alone, ohh
Please, be there, I'm alone
Please, be there, I'm alone
Please, be there I'm alone
