It ain't about nothin' but self satisfaction Everythin' else is just a bonus.

Open the doors, let the savage in Hard rhymes begin.
Rap is in a state of distress
Blade is the medicine Amateurs, step off my profession
Every word's a lesson
Don't confuse emotion with aggression Lights low, my approach is deadly but slow Professional, exceptional, in the dark we glow Who ever acts clever never leaves the premises fully intact
I'm the heavy weight, you're the feather
A firm grip of the microphone confirms my position
As a strong artist and adventurer Soft rappers with your petty bullshit GET LOST!
Every word's a javelin delivered with FORCE! (of course)
This might be difficult for you to fathom
The ever lasting, long living highly under-rated, high caliber no nonsense style of attack is unstoppable, legendary character
What you do I already did, so stop the ego You're weak anyway, what's the deal, what you bragin' for
If you could see what I see, you ain't an MC What's your brain for, when what you're sayin' sounds empty
I gave you time to prepare for the destruction that's about to begin
You makin' a record is a sin

It's a crime, you couldn't even string a sentence together
Your voice ain't broken yet an' you got no balls However your records are sellin', not 'cause you're great but simply 'cause you're acceptable and everybody relates

If the world wasn't corrupt you wouldn't get no airplay
But in a world that's a cesspit, I guess that's fair play However if you're ever on the same stage as us you'll feel the fury a second before you're crushed Instead of tour managers, you'd better bring some nurses
I don't need no weapons 'cause my weapons are my voices
You could be the headline Before the night is over you'll be back upon the breadline
if you ever cross the line My motivation is the hunger that I'm feelin' every minute
I'll eat you and spit out the bones when I'm finished You know what's gettin' me is 'cause you think that you can save me
How can you stand against the talent God gave me?
My God has never been seen, yours is the green
You let that shit control you and ruin the scene That's why my words have been developed into laser beams
Yeah! You can defeat me, but only in your dreams

What happens when you take an ordinary human being give him everything in life overnight? He changes The mind is a delicate piece of material, not to be switched too suddenly
It could be dangerous but you did it, now you feel it You claim you never had a pot to piss in Now I'm hittin' it, I'll get you one, PISS IN IT!
Then shut up about it, we're sick of hearin' it That ain't the way you're livin' so why pretend it is given Bow down before you're forced to retire you ain't ready for mic to mic combat vs the human fire Multiply you and you're crew by 10 add another 24,000 then prepare for the end Only ashes will be left as you die a quiet death
The massacre is over, the world turns deaf Nobody's ever stepped up to address or be a witness and no evidence is left You're secret is well kept FRAUD! You ain't the dangerous kid you claim to be your aim is off target you're just another name to me It's a shame to see the industry ain't about the art
I ain't with it so I'm considered the enemy Even the military couldn't hold back the savage unpredictable steps, every plan is protected nobody knows what my next move's gonna be But for now tell 'em I struck again
The rest is history

Ha ha ha...
How you gonna try and stop us now?
Look how long we been at it Even if you're trying to stop us it makes no difference 'cause we're gonna be here anyway
With or without the money
With or without the support
With or without anybody
You understand me?
