When I came back to town
Didn't wanna hear that sound
But there was nothing I could do
I wanna drive by your house
Just to see if you're around
And I'll be waiting there for you

You oughta know by now
I'm willing to teach you how
Want me to keep it down
You oughta know by now

Turned down the radio
And the voice that we don't know
And you'll be smilin' then
And then you tried to play your part
On the day that broke your heart
Will I see you again?

You oughta know by now
I'm willing to teach you how
Want me to keep it down
You oughta know by now

You oughta know by now
I'm willing to teach you how
Want me to keep it down
You oughta know by now
