So I finally found the way
To lessen all your pain
What you'd give to feel again
For even just a day
And as you search to find the words
Of someone to relate
You realize all your faults,
Were never their mistakes

And everything starts to
Fall apart
Covered in ink to, hide these scars
And everything ends the way it starts
I just want to feel like, I belong

Could this be the one last time
That brings 'em back the change?
The moments in your life
When you know it has to change
Another waste of time, another dream in flames
And once you feel the fire,
You'll never be the same

And everything starts to
Fall apart
Covered in ink to, hide these scars
And everything ends the way it starts
I just want to feel like, I belong
I belong
I belong
I belong

Oooo, All my life, I've done nothing but hide
From myself (over and over, and over and over)
Oooo, and all my life, I've done nothing but hide
From myself (over and over, and over and over)
Oooo, and All my life, I've done nothing but lie
To myself (over and over, and over and over again)

And everything starts to
Fall apart
Covered in ink to, hide these scars

And everything ends the way it starts
I just want to feel like, I belong
I belong
I belong
I belong
I belong
