"Get Away"

You stay all in one piece when broken
Kind remarks and your words soft spoken
Driving far from the path of destruction
Coming ever so close to, throwing it all away again

Is this all some great big lie?
Twisted and working on something deep down
That you should've never kept inside

How much must I live through just to get away?
All this tension and so alive
How much must I live through just to get away?
All this pressure that make your head feel so tired

You've been through the worst encounters
Searching out the truth, the light way
You have thoughts of peace and silence
Coming ever so close to, giving it all away again

Is this all some great big lie?
Sick and disturbing, you want no answers
But you should've never looked inside

How much must I live through just to get away?
All this tension and so alive
How much must I live through just to get away?
All this pressure that make your head feel so tired

And sometimes it seems easier
To burn it to the ground

Can we get away now?
Yeah
Can we get away now?
Yeah
Can we get away now?
Yeah
Please just let this go away

How much must I live through just to get away?
All this tension and so alive
How much must I live through just to get away?

All this pressure that make your head feel so tired

Wouldn't that be easier?

Wouldn't that be easier?

Wouldn't that be easier? To get away

Wouldn't that be easier? Get away

Wouldn't that be easier?

Wouldn't that be easier?

Easier to get away

Easier to get away
