Life started with you
seven-eight avenue
the sun was just comin' through and brightened the morning dew when will you ever return again?

Don't let me down
'cause I'm sure, the summer will make us feel like new it's the only change that we can get together just me and you
on seven-eight avenue

Love took us away every summer night
the chasing crazy world of today was getting out of sight
when will you ever return again?
