

Earth And Fire

"Maybe tomorrow, maybe tonight"

When the time will come that the birds return the season is on the turn and the blossom is adorning the land
My loneliness, my darling will come to an end

Maybe tomorrow, maybe tonight
It's such a wonderful feeling
When your back on my side

When the sunshine
so bright and clean will make trees turn into green our love will turn into what we intend
my loneliness my darling will come to an end

Maybe tomorrow, maybe tonight
It's such a wonderful feeling
When your back on my side
Maybe tomorrow, maybe tonight
It's such a wonderful feeling

The time has come that birds returned
and blossom is adorning the land
My loneliness, my darling will come to an end.
