Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side

Truth serum injected into the situation
So now I know
Separated the real from the false
And now I am better off than I ever was

Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side

Standing where the ground beneath gives way
Disappearing into the abyss
Holding onto lies that speed descent
They're all falling, I'm the only one who's left

Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side

Standing where the ground beneath gives way
Disappearing into the abyss
Holding onto lies that speed descent

Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side
Time's up to decide, now it's time to choose a side

Standing where the ground beneath gives way
Disappearing into the abyss
Holding onto lies that speed descent

Slow arc of descent begins, the test of time tells all One by one they dissolve into the dark, until the cowards are no more I'd rather live in a state of war than the hell of artificial peace

Divide myself from the liars, now it's time to choose a side

Standing where the ground beneath gives way
Disappearing into the abyss
