Dawn of the biomachines

Experiments to spawn the new breed
Of half living creatures to butcher for organs
Transplants extend another's life span
Re-created, twisted in neo-god's hands

Animals physiologically altered
To increase their output for human usage
Left immobile as designed
Trapped in a tortuous unexistence

Monstrosities
Brought into being
Behind the walls of laboratories
Crimes go unseen

Dawn of the biomachines

Horrific cruelty inflicted
Demons in white coats leer down on their prey
Trapped in a hell on earth that's unknown
Not heard not seen until death they'll stay

Helpless beings brutalized by madmen
Trained to deny that they're even alive
The basic motive financial gain
Profit estimates drown the cries of pain

Monstrosities
Brought into being
Behind the walls of laboratories
Crimes go unseen

Medical research
Subjects aren't even seen as alive

Behold the dawn, behold the dawn
Behold the dawn, behold the dawn
Behold the dawn, behold the dawn
Behold the dawn of the biomachines

Monstrosities
Brought into being
Behind the walls of laboratories
Crimes go unseen
