Can feel it sleeping deep inside my brain on hairtrigger
setup.

To trip off my nerves are pulled taught as wire.

There's not one real reason for the disrespect cast
down as I climb out.

Content to believe the lies, so eager to spread them on
without a care.

Don't know what I've survived, don't care about the
ones I've saved.

Can't deny me my due credit, can't make me the hate
object.

Cannot stop me.

Can feel it sleeping deep inside my brain on hairtrigger
setup.

To trip off my nerves are pulled taught as wire.

Don't know what I've survived, don't care about the
ones I've saved.

Can't deny me my due credit, can't make me the hate
object.

There's not one real reason for the disrespect cast
down as I climb out.

Content to believe the lies, so eager to spread them on
without a care.

Won't throw myself away on a fool, declared my laws, I live by my own rules.

Time will show their antics never mattered when the walls they built up are left shattered.

There's not one real reason for the disrespect cast
down as I climb out.

Content to believe the lies, so eager to spread them on
without a care.

Don't know what I've survived, don't care about the
ones I've saved.

Can't deny me my due credit, can't make me the hate

object.
Cannot stop me.
