Roaches crawl in the filth of vice
What's deserved is what they receive
Suffer the pain they bring to themselves
Then deny the ruin

Try to shift the blame onto
Those who are irresponsible
Sink down in a listless state
A complacent half-life

Vicious, barbaric impulsiveness
Walking corpses decay
In the torment that they have made

Let them sink to the bottom
Those who won't stand, let it be their grave
Reach up for a hand but they're all bitten
So now they're drawn away

Killing brain cells, wasting away
Killing brain cells, pure misery
Killing brain cells, renounce, relapse
Killing brain cells, over and over again, again

See them scatter
As weak promises shatter
Used up all the second chances
Given by the ones who matter

Pathetic excuses
Have all worn thin and through
The escape route transformed
Changed into a death trap

Killing brain cells, wasting away
Killing brain cells, pure misery
Killing brain cells, renounce, relapse
Killing brain cells, over and over again, again

Through free will it was chosen
Can't pin it on anyone else
Can't pin it on anyone else

Except yourself

Broke through the thin ice once stood on
Fall down into the nothingness
Die from the venom intaken
Now there's no one else to be blamed

Killing brain cells, wasting away
Killing brain cells, pure misery
Killing brain cells, renounce, relapse
Killing brain cells, over and over again, again

Roaches crawl in the filth of vice
What is deserved is what they receive
Suffer the pain they bring to themselves
Then deny the ruin
