

Earth, Wind & Fire "Beauty"

Oh, oh when I look around me
This old world seems so troubled to me
Does no one see, the beauty that surrounds them
Take a look around you now
Pretty little blossoms, oh yeah
Just as sweet as can be, yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

You know it troubles my mind
These troubled times we need love
You know it troubles my mind
These troubled times we need love
The world needs love, let there be love

Open up your heart and love more, open up
Open up your heart and love more, open up
Open up your heart and love more, open up
Open up your heart and love more
Give a little love love love love love

Does no one see, the beauty that surrounds them
Take a look around you now, sometimes
Pretty little blossoms, oh yeah
Just as sweet as can be, yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

You know it troubles my mind
These troubled times we need love
You know it troubles my mind
These troubled times we need love
The world needs love, let there be love

Open up your heart and love more, open up
Open up your heart and love more, open up
Open up your heart and love more, open up
Open up your heart and love more
Give a little love love love love love

It troubles my mind these troubled times
We need love, love, love, yeah
It troubles my mind these troubled times
We need love, love, love, yeah
It troubles my mind these troubled times
We need love, love, love, yeah

It troubles my mind these troubled times
We need love, love, love, yeah
It troubles my mind these troubled times
We need love, love, love, yeah
It troubles my mind these troubled times
We need love, love, love, yeah
